

COMPILED BY ROBIN SMITH

LOCKWOOD, MARIAN

(1)

RETURN TO:

*as of June 1945*Place and Date of Birth: December 29, 1899Education and Degrees:Field of Investigation: (Details of Profession): AstronomicalDate of Employment in American Museum: August 26, 1929

1943- March, resigned to become effective June 1st, but in April asked to be reinstated as Associate Curator in the Hayden Planetarium, approved on April 22, 1943- and reinstated.

Positions and Staff Appointments in Museum:

Printing and Publishing Dept.

Astronomy Dept.

Oct. 1- 1935- Assistant Curator of Astronomy and Hayden Planetarium

1943- May 3,- Promoted from Assistant Curator to Associate Curator, effective January 1943 and Dept. of Astronomy

1944- April 27- Appointed as Acting Chairman of Planetarium during temporary absence of Prof. Wm. Barton, effective as of Feb. 25, 1944, and Associate Curator title still effective.

2. Publications:

Astronomy Dept. with G. P. Taylor

1932- "The Story of the Solar System" by G. P. Taylor, 1932 by H. H. Brown

Field Work:

1932- Eclipse at Fabyan, New Hampshire- viewed by Amateur Astronomers Association; a third group under guidance of Miss Marian Lockwood, Secretary of Amateur Astronomers Association viewed this eclipse

Committees- Delegations- Elections or Appointments as Officer:1. Museum Activities:

1936- Attended meeting of American Astronomical Society, Harvard, in Sept. 1936

2. Outside Activities:

1936? Member of Board of Directors, Amateur Astronomers Association
" " Executive Committee, "

Research Work:
Astronomical

Literary Activity & Publications:

1. Activities:

1934- Miss Lockwood got permission to give a series of ten classes in Astronomy in the course for Adults in Cooperation with
New York University

Associate Editor "The SKY"

Writer of Star Column in "Westchester Countryside"

2. Publications:

Astronomy Text, with Clyde Fisher

1939- "The Story of Astronomy" with Arthur L. Draper, March 1939 by Dial
Press